

ACCELERATED ENGLISH SPEAKING

IdiomoTM
Canada

Telegraphic Speaking

- Simple, semi-fluent speaking
- Development of neuronal plasticity through graphic associations
- Using Common Structure: Subject, Action, Object

Structured Speaking

- Speaking with basic structures, and semi-fluent
- Development of neural plasticity through associations of ideas with expressions
- Increased vocabulary combination, including common prepositions, location relationships, and time

Fluency Speaking

- Speaking with common structures for native speakers, and unhurried fluency
- Development of neural plasticity through associations of ideas with expressions of medium complexity
- Description of events, and discussions about common events or situations

Travel Speaking

- Become familiar with questions that you may need to ask, and get ready for the answer.
- Understand immigration questions and be prepared to answer.
- Learn the English needed for most situations during your trip to North America

Power Speaking

- Fluent speaking needed for both informal and professional discussions
- Strengthening bilingualism at the neural level
- Description of any type of event or situation

Elite Speaking

- Speaking with native structures and high fluency in both informal and professional discussions
- Spontaneous flow of English
- Smooth discussions about any kind of event or situation